

Updated February 17: Notice of Scheduled Hearing for Crematorium License

Service Nova Scotia and Internal Services will be holding a hearing into the license of Forest Haven Memorial Gardens (2005) regarding allegations that the crematorium has contravened the Embalmers and Funeral Directors Act. The Hearing is scheduled to be held on March 11, 2022.

Following the hearing, a written decision will be released outlining the findings.